"Paddle your own canoe."

Up this world, and down this world,
And over this world and through,
Though drifted about,
And tossed without,
Why, "paddle your own canoe."
What though the sky is heavy with clouds,
Or shining a field of blue;
If the black winds blow,
Or the sunbeams glow,
Still "paddle your own canoe."
What if breakers rise up ahead,
With dark waves rushing through,
Move steadily by,
With steady eye,
And "paddle your own canoe."
If a hurricane rise in the midnight sky,
And the stars are lost to view,
Guide safely along
With a smile and a song,
And "paddle your own canoe."
Up this world and down this world,
And over this world and through,
Though drifted about,
And tossed without,
Why, "paddle your own canoe."
Never give up when trials come,
Never grow sad and blue;
Never sit down
With a fear and a frown,
But "paddle your own canoe."
There are daisies springing along the shores
Blooming and sweet for you;
There are roses blooming
In the autumn sky,
Then "paddle your own canoe."

European News.

New York, September 23.—The America with dates to the 16th has arrived.

The steamer Star sailed from the Clyde to run the blockade. Two other steamers were ready to follow. 80 of the Florida's crew had arrived at Cardiff and proceeded to Liverpool. The Confederate loan was 25 discount. Centinel, 33¢ for money. French Rentee, 67¢ 15c.

M. Fould [French Minister] was preparing a finance report, which was said to be very favorable.

The Russian reply to the last French note has been received. The Nation says that the tone of the Russian dispatch is very conciliatory. It does not revert to the discussion of the Six Points—armistice not conference.

The London Times's Paris correspondent says that the attachment of the Florida was not allowed to take place while in the Imperial dock-yard.

The contract for the manufacture and laying down next summer of a good submarine cable between Ireland and Newfoundland, was signed in London on the 5th instant.

The English papers are still canvassing the propriety and non-propriety of the Government detaining the steamers built by the Lairds and supposed to be for the rebels.

French papers say that three clipper steamers are building at Nantes and at Bordeaux, which are suspected to be for the rebels.

The Florida is still detained at Brest, to satisfy the French claims.

New York, Sept. 24.—The Times's Paris letter says that the Florida [at Brest] cannot finish her repairs before two months. Two levies have been made on her for claims due to French citizens, and another will be for the seizure of certain bars of silver belonging to a European house. It is not believed that she will ever go to sea again as a destroyer of peaceful commerce.

It is again positively asserted that Maximilian accepts the Mexican throne.

The Confederate Government has effected a loan of 100,000,000 francs from parties in France, based on cotton now in the country.

The French Recognition.

The following items are all that we find referring to the recognition of the Confederacy, under date of Sept. 28. Like many other items, it is rather sensational.

Paris correspondence of the Morning Herald repeats the assertion that recognition and an offensive and defensive league between the French, Confederate and Mexican Governments has been decided upon.

Dispatches of 24th contradict the above as follows: Not the least credit ought to be given to rumors of recognition of the South by France, the French Government having positively disclaimed any such intention.

Laird's Iron-clads.

The following important announcement concerning the iron-clad rams in the river St. Lawrence appears in the London Morning Herald of the 7th. We are informed that Earl Russell, on Wednesday, dispatched by written message a positive order to the Messrs. Laird to prevent these vessels leaving their yards, without ample explanation of their destination and sustainable reference to their owner or owners. It is affirmed, moreover, that the French Ambassador had been appealed to as to the possibility of French subjects having ordered vessels of this class of an English shipbuilder. The reply was that to French subjects has any legal right to possess or purchase any vessels of war, either for himself or in behalf of others. The Secretary of Foreign Affairs is also of opinion that if these vessels are for an individual owner that the individual could only be a privateer or pirate, and it is on these grounds that the Government has decided the question in the Courts.

Later.

London, Sept. 12.—The British Government has certainly resolved to stop the steam rams in the Mersey.

Dates to Saturday, 19th September.

Boston, September 26.—The steamer Adalia, from Galway the 19th, has arrived.

The Tribunal of Commerce at Bordeaux has tried the case involving the question whether the Florida is a pirate or a privateer. The decision was that the Florida has not exceeded belligerent rights, nor incurred the reproach of piracy. Application had been made at the Tribunal of Commerce by the owners of part of the cargo of the W. T. Nash for an authorization to seize the Florida at Brest, until the claim of 100,000 francs was settled. The authorization was granted. Mr. Sillet had gone to Brest to arrange the affair.

The Paris Pays of the 13th believes itself entitled to state that the Maritime Prefect at Brest has opposed the seizure of the Florida in consequence of an order from Paris, issued, as the Pays asserts, with the object of preserving its inviolability as a military port.

The gates of Warsaw have been closed for ten days to all desiring to enter or to leave. 200 inhabitants have been transported to Siberia. The Russian authorities have imposed an enormous tax upon all the provinces of Poland.
